Friday, August 26
“New Beginnings!”
At our first colloquium meeting of the academic year, returning faculty and graduate students will introduce themselves as we get to know and welcome our new faculty and graduate students.

Friday, September 9
“Department of Communication Focus Area Meetings”
The faculty and graduate students within each of the Department’s four research focus areas – Interpersonal Communication, Mass Media, Organizational Communication, and Political Communication – will meet to discuss issues and ongoing research projects within each area.

Friday, September 23
“Teaching the Online Communication Course: A Roundtable Discussion”
Matthew Livengood-Clouse, Instructional Design Coordinator, ET@MO
Catt Friel, Academic Technology Liaison, MU College of Arts & Science
Dr. Lissa Behm-Morawitz, MU Department of Communication
Ryan Montague, MU Department of Communication

Friday, October 7
“Individual Differences in Video Game Effects on Brain and Behavioral Responses”
Dr. Bruce D. Bartholow, MU Department of Psychology

Friday, October 21
“The Reluctant Farmer: An Exploration of Work, Social Class, and the Production of Food”
Dr. Debbie S. Dougherty, MU Department of Communication

Friday, November 11
“National Communication Association Graduate Student Presentations”
Department of Communication graduate students who will present papers at the National Communication Association’s annual meeting in New Orleans will first share their research with their MU colleagues.

Friday, December 2
“Negotiating Gender from Multiple Levels”
Dr. Patrice Buzzanell, Brian Lamb School of Communication, Purdue University

(Unless otherwise announced, all colloquia meet in 201 Switzler Hall from 3:00 – 4:00 pm)