APPLIED POLITICAL COMMUNICATION RESEARCH & PROJECTS

Media Commentary:

- Frequently interviewed by local, state and national media regarding my political communication research and asked to offer analysis of presidential debates and current political campaigns.
- Served as the principal presidential debate analyst during the 2016 presidential campaign for NPR News (including “Morning Edition” and “All Things Considered”) and USA Today.
- Quoted by approximately 800 media outlets throughout the 2016 presidential campaign, including: the Associated Press, Reuters, CNN, MSNBC, CNBC, Fox News, New York Times, Washington Post, Chicago Tribune, Wall Street Journal, U.S. News & World

Report, Christian Science Monitor, National Journal, Miami Herald, Seattle Times, Los Angeles Times, San Francisco Chronicle, Des Moines Register, Denver Post, Jacksonville Times Union, Detroit Free Press, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and the Kansas City Star. International placements included: Bangladesh News, First Post (India), The China Post, Arab News, Sunday Times of Sri Lanka, Belfast Telegraph (Ireland), Brisbane Times (Australia), Voice of Russia, Sydney Morning Herald, Canberra Times (Australia), Horizonti (Croatia), Lateline (Australia), Times of India, and Globe Life (Canada).

Political Communication Institute (pci.missouri.edu):

- Established and serve as Director of the University of Missouri's Political Communication Institute (PCI). The primary purpose of the PCI is to develop knowledge and promote a greater understanding of how communication functions in the practice of politics and achievement of democracy. Activities of the Institute include conducting original research, sponsoring educational programs, and promoting citizen engagement in political and civic affairs.

2002 Korean Presidential Debates (2002, July):

- Invited to Seoul to participate in planning sessions hosted by the Korean Broadcasting Commission and the Korean Broadcasting Institute as Korea's presidential debate commission made plans for its December 2002 televised presidential debates.

2002 Missouri U.S. Senate Debate (2002, Oct.):

- Served as adviser to the Missouri Press Association in planning a televised U.S. Missouri Senate Debate that included both major and two minor-party candidates.

1998 Oklahoma Gubernatorial Debate (1998, Oct.):

- Proposed a televised debate between the major-party candidates running for governor of Oklahoma in 1998. Conducted pre-debate negotiations between the two campaigns, served as debate coordinator responsible for all details relating to debate planning, and also served as moderator for the debate held on the OU campus. The debate was carried by C-SPAN, and broadcast statewide on Oklahoma Educational Television.

Politics as a Laughing Matter – Political Communication Center Conference, University of Oklahoma (1998, April):

- Developed the idea for a conference examining the many ways in which we attempt to make sense of American democracy through humor. The conference featured nationally-recognized scholars and practitioners who discussed political satire, humor in editorial cartooning and humor in political advertising. The conference was televised nationally by C-SPAN.

C-SPAN Seminar for Professors, Washington, D.C. (1998, Jan.):

- Selected out of 600 applicants as one of 35 college professors to participate in C-SPAN's seminar for professors. Held in C-SPAN's Washington, D.C. studios, the seminar allowed faculty to observe first-hand the production and broadcast of the network's various political programming and to collaborate with staff on using C-SPAN programs in political communication teaching and research.

University of Oklahoma Presidential Debate Proposal Committee (1996, Spring):

- Working with OU President David Boren, served as a member of the committee that submitted a proposal to the U.S. Commission on Presidential Debates (CPD) to host a 1996 presidential debate on the OU campus. While OU's proposal was selected by the CPD as one of the final debate sites, the financial demands for securing the event required the University to withdraw its proposal.

“Town Hall” Presidential Debate (1992, 1996 & 2000, Fall):

- Invited by the Commission on Presidential Debates to assist with the “Town Hall” presidential debates of 1992, 1996 and 2000. This consultation involved working with Professor Diana Carlin, a member of the Commission’s Advisory Board, and assisting Commission staff as they staged the nationally-televised debates.
